3 (a) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary of Transportation
4 shall establish the Rural Opportunities to Use Transpor-
5 tation for Economic Success Office (hereinafter referred 6 to as the ROUTES Office), to—

7 (1) improve analysis of rural projects applying
8 for Department of Transportation discretionary 9 grants, including ensuring that project costs, local 10 resources, and the larger benefits to the American 11 people and the economy are appropriately consid-
12 ered; and

13 (2) provide rural communities with technical as-14 sistance for meeting the Nation’s transportation in-15 frastructure investment need in a financially sustain-
16 able manner.

17 (b) OBJECTIVES.—The ROUTES Office shall—

18 (1) collect input from knowledgeable entities
19 and the public on the benefits of rural transpor-

1 tation projects, the technical and financial assistance
2 required for constructing and operating rural trans-
3 portation infrastructure and services, and barriers
4 and opportunities to funding such rural transpor-
5 tation projects;

6 (2) evaluate data on rural transportation chal-
7 lenges and determining methods to align the Depart-
8 ment of Transportation's discretionary funding and 9 financing opportunities with the needs of rural com-
10 munities for meeting National transportation goals;
11 and

12 (3) educate rural communities about applicable
13 Department of Transportation discretionary grants,
14 developing effective methods to evaluate rural 15 projects in discretionary grant programs, and com-
16 municating those methods through program guid-
17 ance.

18 (c) ROUTES COUNCIL.—

19 (1) IN GENERAL.—The Secretary shall establish 20 the ROUTES Council (hereinafter referred to as the 21 “Council”) to—
