Dear Members of the 118th Congress,

Virginia Asian Chamber of Commerce writes today to encourage you to pass the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) Reauthorization bill without delay.

Our diverse Asian business membership represents cultural heritage from 37 Asian countries. These enterprises engage in regular business and familial travel to their home countries and global markets alike. Enacting the Federal Aviation Administration (FAA) Reauthorization bill will significantly aid these businesses in effectively managing their current international operations and venturing into new markets.

We appreciate the leadership shown by Senators Maria Cantwell and Ted Cruz and Representatives Sam Graves and Rick Larsen to work together to achieve a bipartisan, bicameral legislative package.

The flying public cannot afford to wait. We urge you to pass the FAA Reauthorization bill now.

Sincerely,

Ms. My Lan Tran

Executive Director,

Virginia Asian Chamber of Commerce
